FROM THE EDITORS’ DESK

Fables and Fantasies are not something just out of storybooks; each of our lives has treasured moments, moments that make life worth living; we hope that our graduating batch experienced a multitude of such moments during their stay at KGP. We would like to remind you that it’s not just the significant events but the everyday instances that are worth remembering, those late nights at 2.2, hanging out at cheddies, cramming for tests, and so much more. Thus, we have attempted to capture your fantastic tale into this small memoir.

After months of effort in planning, designing and deliberation, we are more than proud to present to you this fantastic memento titled ‘The Grimoire of Time’ that we are pleased to have produced; we hope that it invokes as much joy as we expect and rejuvenates your memories of KGP. We have tried to make this a memoir that you can look back upon years later and still be overwhelmed with emotions and fond memories.

Your fable at KGP was filled with ups and downs, magic and fantasy; thus, to capture this unique story, we felt that our theme ‘A portal to fantasy’ was the most fitting. Let us walk back to those moments that were filled with magic; we hope that you will carry forward the magic you have acquired at KGP and take it forward throughout your life. Though your journey here has ended, you will always be one of us, a ‘KGPian’. We hope you enjoyed the ride and best of luck with your next adventure.

"It's true that we blame illu at the start but that is what makes us cry at the end. I still remember how I used to hate going to work for the illu and used to think when all this will end. I still remember how hard we worked for making it work and a small drench of rain would make us low and scared. After actively participating in my second year of illu at LLR and seeing the after results... it really made me proud and happy about illu. Illu has teamwork... and its like a family event where all participate in it. It was really a good time which helped me bond well with seniors and my fellow hallmates. Not having illu for 2020 really made me sad. Illu becomes a part of me when I am ready to participate in it. Was lucky enough to witness a central mini illu in 2021. Participated in the hall even I had placements to get that satisfaction. Illu is the way KGP celebrates diwali... Endless nightouts and co-ordination of each batch results into this unique way of celebration."

"A golden semester ended, with that my Dual Degree in IIT Kharagpur. The last semester was quite a special one. It started with an online class at my home and ended with giving PPT somewhere in a hall station inside a cab while raining. My KGP journey started in rain and ended in rain. I would like to take a moment and thank all my seniors, my batchmates, and my juniors for their constant support, help, guidance and competition. It is tough to tag everyone since 100% of people helped me. What I can say, Help will always be given at IIT KGP to those who ask for it. I feel very blessed to be part of a great college with a great legacy among students to pass on whatever help they received. I always felt my number was very related to my course number. In first year - 17E31008 and C0308. In third year - 17EE35008 and H304.

(Exceptions: H116 in second year) I can see transforming from my photos on the left (covering campus on 24/4/2017) to right (covering campus on 11/3/2022). I always felt like second home in my room because of cordial nature of KGPans. In KGP, your Mobile, your Bike, and your Laptop become an extension of your human body. You feel meaningless and complete if you have them. I should definitely mention my Drive link - JKR material and my Facebook page - JKR FUNDA. I learnt a lot while maintaining them. "A word of Speech is a work of Action" in what KGP taught me. Thank you KGP and KGPans for making me a better version of myself. Last but not least, Once an ITian, always an ITian, Once a KGPan, always a KGPian. Once you live in KGP, KGP lives in you. PS. I have observed people are signing off, but I haven't received any documents from ERP to sign off. You fellow KGPans.

Mere words can’t begin to describe what the institute stands for in the heart of KGPlan. It is a place of kinship, hope and excitement for many of us and a home away from home for nearly every KGPlan. True to the culture passed on over the years, this 2100 acre campus has a rich past and stories that would bewilder you even today. This lush green campus away from the hustle and bustle of big cities inspires feelings of tranquillity and peace in all those who wash up on its shores.

KGP is a different world itself. Well, we have our own unique food items prepared which can’t be found anywhere else, as well as a dynamic sense of solidarity among the college’s various cultures. We have our own small culture to live by, with a large campus, endless chances, and different hangout spots. We all have our own unique ways of commemorating various occasions and festivals, and practically everything has a never-ending tempo.

"Was lucky to be a part to organise the departmental alumni meet in 2022. Listening to the stories of the batches of 1971, 1972, 1981, 1992, and 1997 was so nice.

It's true that KGP is more about the people than the place itself. The experiences they had being a part of the institution are hilarious and scary at the same time.

But none the less, it was an eye opening experience. Wondering what would be the situation when I would walk into the department as an alumnus?

"Life as KGP to be described in one word is: Jannata! And why not?

The place where everything seems so peaceful and at the same time exciting. Surely, couldn't have asked for a better KGP life than what I have already lived. What not! Nothing left, tried and tested everything, be it Socials, Tech, Sports, being involved in all the places, dancing crazily in 2.2 whole night, crashing with Par's car, and what not.

Got amazing friends with whom I enjoyed my final semester a hell lot, and obviously how can the Jannata be devoid of my Janmas?

My roommates and group friends with whom I have been to all the trips inside and outside KGP. Life being own entropy was a bonus point for me, as I made hell lot of friends and bonded with many others. Am still thinking, how will I control my tears when I will be getting Convocated from the place that has made me apart?

HOOMANS OF KGP

There are two kinds of guys to campus whom a woman can like.
One likes to do it and often, she doesn’t like to do it.
Not a woman, till the second category.
Smart is in LDP, there won’t be too much about who is in the LDP, but still he had to do some work.
I had a bit of fun over this.
I went in and enjoyed it, I however, in the mordant
I didn’t have a single status as a human.
Due to some academic issues.
I dropped off this way and the others.
Dancing the whole day, it was obvious I missed the for a cup of coffee, we discussed and talked to pop in front of some meaningful and those discussions are.
And I feel they are the best.
Our joy however was tempered in the wash that was doing the matter.
And the silence was how catching others.
I can’t imagine the day students could understand
The sound of one hand clapping.
So, I was forced to write some in MSN.
And then the thing which could have happened.
From the 2004 taking the day.
Ugh, Kanshi, had and they become.
My last girlfriend.
Some friends I met during last year
fun with them.
It’s a shame that together
Hoping to meet them during the convocation.

HOOMANS OF KGP

"All of it began on 26th July, 2017, when I reached the station aborninged by the 3 letters which have become one of the most house places, KGP."

This place made me believe in myself and gave me hope.

It made me tough by throwing challenges and making me fight back whenever I was in the zone of quitting.

KGP carried me to a zone of spirituality, and being a sports player, moving me from a competitive and self-centered to the joy of healthy coexistence along with the power and importance of stress.

It made me realize the world of business and transforming into a better person, a leader, and above all, a good human, to be a man (mano), supportive and responsible and powerful.

The journey wasn't easy, but when I look back, I realize it was made enjoyable by a number of amazing people called expenditure, that I have never seen without their names.

But in the end, for me, life in KGP was also musically transforming. I once again quoted a song that lost, deeply buried in the music, which was in safe during my preparation. I met my musical Guru at that place and the education of music, as the first time on an allied in the deep sea of stress and tension from demanding academics and extra curriculars. It always guided me and help me toward the path of hope and success.

THANK YOU for everything KGP.

ILLUMINATION

Illumination’ or ‘Ilu’ is one of our oldest and most treasured bits of culture. After days worth of gruelling effort, we make beautiful designs on grids of bamboo known as chatuis, though Ilu isn’t just about the beauty that these designs provide by adorning KGP in a glow of light that envelops the entirety of KGP. It’s also about the competitive nature of the events where halls put their tempo to the test of their tempo, competing with each other to see who comes on top, to a lot of halls the ilu designs aren’t just decorations they are a symbol of the halls pride, started by the students of Azad hall initially it has grown into a tradition that unites the whole of KGP.
Another major Diwali tradition of RGP, don’t let its simple name fool you. The rangolis at RGP are not common rangoli, a marvel of design, these are huge murals made on the floor with colours mixed with sand. The sand is sifted at least a hundred times when run through the fingers to get a smooth silvery fineness. The colours are sourced locally or sometimes, from the South, for some rare colours. Colour mixing is the main challenge. They can be rejected several times by the ‘Dadas’ of the Rangoli team. Grids are first drawn on the floor, and then the colours are filled in by the design that can be illustrated by hand or on the computer. The shading is the trickiest part and can take hours to get things right. A strict timeline, stretching over at least two months, is drawn out and adhered to for the execution of the Rangolis.
“5 years on, Inter IIT tech GC was missing from the KGP cabinet. Hence, it was simple for us, we were here to win, and win it big.”
HOOMANS OF KGP

"The story of my life at KGP is not extraordinary. It's the same as everyone. The people, the memories, and the places that made it special. When I came to my first year, I wondered how I am going to cope with so many intellectual tasks. I thought I'd fail. The friends, professors, and I got along very well and it reassured me. It was a nice year for sure. I made more memories, the beach trips, going to Vundla, no gurudwara and enjoying with friends. But, overall, it was an enjoyable year.

However, as 2nd year began, I started taking projects, learning courses online apart from academics, and participating in various communities. I found that I had to do things I should be doing. I was struggling to increase my GPA. People were doing internships, and I wasn't back in campus doing projects while I was back home.

I started exploring different fields. I tried learning Java. I didn't do so in the best way. I was struggling with it. I thought if I should go for MBA, I should be able to get any internship in finance for my 3rd year. In the end, I wasn't sure. I decided to focus on UX and never look back again.

I spent most of my time here preparing for CSE exams. I made sure I am in a good mood while doing the work. I was trying to get any internship off-campus. I felt like giving up, but at the end of the year, I got one. I feel grateful to find something which I like and want to pursue my career in this field. My friends were equally supportive and helped me in the best possible way.

My final year was the most amazing time of the whole 2 years at KGP. It taught me the value of friendship. I was going through a difficult time, but my friends were always there. For me, they made my life understood and happy.

I feel in love with the beauty of this place, the huge campus, the beautiful buildings, the wonderful flowers, the soothing nights, the peace. I will remember the days with joy because of the people who gave me joy in life. The memories will remain forever.

COSPLAY
Hoomans of KGP

Definitely, I can say that all the fun of 4 years on one side and the fun in just 3 days of Spring Fest is on another side. It’s just not a Fest, it’s an emotion for which the whole KGP and outside folks too, eagerly wait to feel it. Some of my fondest memories have been made in these 3 offline SFs and I am very grateful to the SF team for that. Moments like Dancing crazily on 2.2, checking out the greenery :-(P, enjoying madly in Pronites, Jamming energetically with random folks, exploring new places on campus with new peeps for (various things) and the list goes on.

Fantasy is a necessary ingredient in living. It's a way of looking at life through the wrong end of a telescope, and that enables you to laugh at life's realities.
